

PRESS RELEASE

CHAÏB-SEDDUK CONTEMPORARY ART PROJECTS

The Seagram Building 375 Park Avenue, Level 26 New York, NY 10152

Contact : M. Farid Chaïb-Sedduk

Mobile : 1/917.868-1416 / Email : press@chaib-sedduk.com

Website : <http://www.chaib-sedduk.com>

Farid CHAÏB-SEDDUK opens officially his office in New York

New York, Tuesday May 6th, 2014 6-9 pm

Chaïb-Sedduk Contemporary Art Projects (CSCA), created on 5th Avenue in 1998, is directing art projects for French, European and American artists since The Louis Vuitton Building in Paris and The Seagram Building on Park Avenue, New York.

International artists have been selected to present and to identify the vision of CSCA New York office with photography and sculpture.

Phil Stein is an American artist with photography collage process. It's composed of archival ink jets on a variety of acid free paper all ultra thin aluminum and museumgrade matt board on a base of plexi.

Lukasz Cendrowsky a Polish artist will have a place with selected sculptures with his recent work based on specific type of hybridism. His geometrical form becomes « contaminated by irregularity of matter to take to next step beyond minimal art.

Two special guests (TBD) as a French and Russian artists to complete the identity of CSCA New York office.

CSCA New York and Paris organizes exhibitions and works with numerous famous and emerging artists to more credit due to its multiplied partners in the world.

The fact that CSCA works with different mediums, allows the launch of several offices : New York, Paris, as well in Los Angeles and Berlin in 2014.

Tags : Chaïb-Sedduk Contemporary Art Projects, United States, Official Opening, New York

